Leyland Cecco

Leyland Cecco is a writer, photographer and filmmaker. His work often focuses on the intersection of culture, environment and economics. Over the years, he has reported from the Middle East, North Africa and across Canada. He has worked as a national reporter for The Globe and Mail and freelanced for Al Jazeera America and The Guardian. He is also a grant recipient from the Pulitzer Centre for Crisis Reporting.

Since September, 2016, Leyland has worked with United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) to tell stories of refugee resettlement in Canada. Over a four month period, Leyland Cecco and Annie Sakkab travelled from coast to coast meeting with Syrians refugees and the communities that welcomed them. The result was a seven part series titled 'From Far and Wide'.
